At the beginning of the book there's tension between the police and the press because of a spate of cops shooting perps and unfortunately for Benji he becomes the publics next target when a routine traffic stop turns nasty and he has to shoot a man to protect a child. Because he was under the domination of the idea that all Scriptures had four different meanings, he did not advance an understanding of them despite all of his vast learning. Tous les trois sont beaux... Quand ils s'arrangent. The landscape in the background of the nine photographs also seems to coalesce into a hyper-landscape.
