David J. While it is a reasonable trigger for why Tomas might decide to grab the money and run, and we saw a similar hack prompt backcopy to decide to close down BMR fully, the problem with the story is that no one seems to have ever dealt with an EBOOK, EBOOK has not left any taunting messages or clues like the BMR hacker did, and SMP in retrospect seems to have been orchestrating the scam for at least a week in advance by shutting down withdrawals on the pretext of adding tumblingcoaxing people into depositing even more money, and delaying tactics like adding a fancy countdown timer.
