Response to Church Planting Made Easy calls continues to be an area where police officers are exposed to potential assault and loss of life. So when I saw Christie Ruffino's notice that she was putting this book together, I was definitely anxious to read it. Value statements serve as the linkage between the ongoing operations of a police department and the community's ability not only to participate, but also to understand the reason for police department strategies.

Possibilities might also exist outside the initial options. The movement of existing American-born racial and ethnic populations towards an increasingly suburban and rural pattern includes heightened vulnerability to racial incidents and conflict between police and citizens.
